THE PROBLEM

THINK ABOUT THE LAST SLICE YOU BOUGHT.

- ✕ Under a heat lamp.
- ✕ The same slice as last week.
- ✕ Gone in four bites.

WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT THEM

THINK AND FEEL

Same meals get boring. They want new flavors.

HEAR

Friends suggest new places. Weekly specials.

SEE

The same food nearby. New foods on TikTok and Instagram.

SAY AND DO

"I want something different." They ask friends.

PAINS

Bored. New options cost too much. Unsure they will like it.

GAINS

Meals they enjoy. Affordable new flavors. New choices every week.

SOLUTION

OUR FIRST IDEA.

SOLUTION, STILL OPEN

3 QUESTIONS TO ANSWER.

1. Which slices do people actually want to buy again?
2. Is about $6.50 the right price for a giant slice when Pop's charges $4.50 for a regular one?
3. Can a weekly pre-order pickup sell 30 slices, our break-even, and does the slice stay good on the way home with our box and reheat card?
